

Since academia provided me the opportunities to prepare for a career in research, I strive to acquire a Doctorate of Physical Therapy (DPT) and a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) to become an institutional leader that will not only develop inclusive apparel for individuals who require physical therapy devices but also devote my heart to the personal development of students entering University.